Testamentsdokumente von Red Leg oder Red Leggins (wie wir sie kannten).

Die Zeugenaussagen in diesen Dokumenten wurden fünfzehn Jahre nach dem Tod von Red Leggins abgegeben. Als Zeugen wurde ihr Sohn Combing herangezogen, ebenso wie ihre Tochter Iron Cedar (oder Julia Clown, wie sie in den meisten Reservationsunterlagen bezeichnet wird), ihre Schwiegertochter Margaret Wolf, ihr Schwager Paul Red Bird und ein angeheirateter Verwandter namens Moses Straighthead, der Mary Marrowbones, die Tochter der Schwester ihres Cousins Little Hawk geheiratet hatte.
Die Dokumente wurden, der Lesbarkeit halber, neu geschrieben, aber das Originaldokument geht dem transkribierten voran. Sie enthalten auch die Zeugenaussagen von Julia Rushes, die zweite Frau von Combing. Alle Originaldokumente können in voller Größe unter http://reelcontact.com/pages/tashunke-witko-tiwahe eingesehen werden.

Zur Erinnerung: Red Leggins war die jüngste Ehefrau von Crazy Horse II (und ihre Kinder damit Brüder und Schwestern von Crazy Horse)

A. I have heard that her father's name was [illegible] but I don't know her mother's name and that is all I know about them. I never saw either of them.
Q. What tribe did they belong to? A. Cheyenne River Sioux.

A. 14.

Q. Did she have any brothers and sisters and if so, name them and tell when you [illegible] them
A. She had two sisters that I [illegible] and I have heard of others but never saw them. One was called Iron Between Horns, and the other was called [illegible] Money. Those are all the names that I know. She had one brother that died before I was born, when the Indians had some sickness and he was called Bull [illegible], never married and never had [illegible], all sisters died before allotments.
Q. Was Iron Between Horns married and if so, how many times?
A. She was married one time.
Q. Who was her husband. A. [illegible] Horse.
Q. How and when were they married? Indian custom long ago.
Q. Is he living or dead? A. He is dead.
Q. When did he die? A. He died about 40 years ago.
Q. Did they have any children and if so, how many?
A. They had one, a boy.
Q. What was his name? A. High Horse.
Q. Is he living or dead? A. He died long ago, before allotments when a young man, killed in an Indian war, and left no issue. There is nothing left of her family at all.
Q. Was [illegible] Money married and if so, how many times?
A. She was married to the same as Iron Between Horns, [illegible] Horse, by the old Indian custom, and she died [illegible], then [illegible] Horse died and [illegible] Iron Between Horns died and all of them died long before allotments.
Q. Did [illegible] Money have any children and if so, how many?
A. She had two I think I have heard but they both died before I was born and there is nothing left of her family.
Q. Do you know anything more about the family history of [illegible]?
A. That is all I know about it.
Q. You stated that [illegible] was your wife, how and when were you married to her?
A. I was married to her by Indian custom when I was 23 years old. (He is 69 now and that would be about 46 years ago)
Q. Did you live with her as her husband from the time you married her until she died? A. I did.
Q. Were you ever married before you married her and if so, how many times? A. I was married one time before I married her.
Q. Who was that wife? A. I don't like to say her name but it was [illegible] After Her.
Q. How and when were you married to her and how did the marriage [illegible]? A. I married her in Indian custom nearly 50 years ago and threw her away the same way, the way Indians did in those days, just let her go and got another one. In those days if you got a woman and if her ways were not just what you wanted you would turn her away and that is what I did.
Q. What tribe did she belong to? A. She was a [illegible] Sioux.
Q. Did you and [illegible] have any children and if so, how many? A. We never did.
Q. Did she ever have a child at all? A. No she never did.
Q. Did she ever adopt a child? A. She helped to raise a boy of [illegible], called [illegible], but it was not her own and so she did not really adopt a child at all.

[illegible]

Q. Then she did not have a child of her own at all but simply helped you raise this child. Was that the way it was?
A. Yes that was the way it was.
Q. Who were the father and mother of Julia Hughes?
A. I do not know her father and she told me her mother's name but I have forgotten it. I have seen her mother but her father died long ago and I never saw him.
Q. Is her mother living or dead? A. She died in 1878 and her father died long before that.
Q. What tribe did they belong to? A. They were of the Sioux tribe.
Q. Did Julia Hughes have any brothers and sisters and if so, how many, give their names and ages and tell whether they are living or dead, and if dead, give date of death and age at time of death.
A. I have heard about four sisters, and one brother, the brothers name was Red Eagle, dead, died before the allotments here and he was about 50 to 60 years old, he died on the Rosebud reservation. Comes Out at Night was the name of one of the sisters and she died at [illegible] after Red Eagle, before Julia Hughes, an old woman when she died, and two of the sisters died long ago and I do not know their names, died long before Julia Hughes, grown up when they died but I don't know their ages, and one sister was a twin to Julia Hughes and she died long before Julia and her name was [illegible], and she was about 50 years old when she died.
Q. Then when Julia died, her father and mother, brother and sisters all had died before her. Is that correct?
A. Yes, that is correct.
Q. At the time Julia died, do you claim to have been her rightful husband? A. I do.
Q. Do you know anything more about the family history of Julia Hughes?
A. That is about all I know about it.
Q. Are you interested in these matters? A. I am.

Frage: Zu welchem Stamm gehörten sie?
Antwort: Cheyenne-River Sioux.
Frage: Hatte sie Brüder und Schwestern? Wenn ja, nennen Sie ihre Namen und berichten Sie, über sie, was sie können.
Antwort: Sie hatte zwei Schwestern, die ich kannte, und ich habe von anderen gehört, aber diese habe ich nie kennengelernt. Eine hieß Iron Between Horns, und die andere hieß Kills Enemy. Das sind alle Namen, die mir bekannt sind. Sie hatte noch einen Bruder, der bereits vor meiner Geburt starb, als unter den Indianern eine Krankheit wütete. Er hieß Bull Head, war niemals verheiratet und hinterließ keine Nachkommen. Beide Schwestern starben vor den Landzuteilungen.
Frage: War Iron Between Horns verheiratet, und wenn ja, wie oft?
Antwort: Sie war einmal verheiratet.
Frage: Wer war ihr Mann?
Antwort: Crazy Horse.
Frage: Lebt er noch oder ist er verstorben?

Frage: Wie war sein Name?

Frage: Lebt er noch oder ist er verstorben?
Antwort: Er starb als junger Mann, lange Zeit vor den Landzuteilungen. Er wurde in einem Kampf mit anderen Indianern getötet. Er hinterließ keine Nachkommen und von seiner Familie lebt niemand mehr.
Frage: War Kills Enemy verheiratet und wenn ja, wie oft?
Antwort: Sie war mit demselben Mann verheiratet wie Iron between Horns, also auch mit Crazy Horse. Dies geschah nach altem indianischem Brauch. Sie verstarb zuerst, dann folgte Crazy Horse, und als letzte verstarb Iron Between Horns. Alle starben lange Zeit vor Einführung der Landzuteilungen.

Frage: Hatte Kills Enemy Kinder und wenn ja, wie viele?
Antwort: Soviel wie ich gehört habe, hatte sie zwei, aber sie starben beide, bevor ich geboren wurde. Es gibt niemanden mehr aus ihrer Familie.
Frage: Wissen Sie mehr über die Familiengeschichte von Red Leg?
Antwort: Das ist alles, was ich weiß.
Frage: Sie sagten, dass Julia Rushes Ihre Frau war. Wie und wann wurden Sie mit ihr verheiratet?
Antwort: Ich wurde nach indianischem Ritus getraut, als ich 25 Jahre alt war. (Er ist jetzt 69 Jahre alt und das wäre etwa 44 Jahre her).
Frage: Haben Sie mit ihr als Ehemann zusammen gelebt, von der Zeit an wo Sie sie geheiratet haben, bis zu ihrem Tode?
Antwort: Ja, das habe ich.
Frage: Waren Sie jemals verheiratet, bevor Sie sie geheiratet haben und wenn ja, wie oft?
Antwort: Ich war einmal verheiratet, bevor ich sie heiratete.
Frage: Wer war diese Frau?
Antwort: Ich erwähne ihren Namen nur ungern, aber es war Comes After Her.
Frage: Wie und wann waren Sie mit ihr verheiratet und wie wurde die Ehe beendet?
Antwort: Ich heiratete sie vor etwa 50 Jahren nach indianischer Sitte und warf sie auf die gleiche Weise wieder weg. Ich verließ sie einfach und nahm mir eine andere Frau. So machten wir Indianer das damals, wir verließen sie und suchten uns eine andere. In der alten Zeit war es so, dass man eine Frau verlassen konnte, wenn man sich mit ihr nicht verstand, und genau das tat ich.
Frage: Zu welchem Stamm gehörte sie?
Antwort: Sie war eine Pine Ridge Sioux.
Frage: Hatten Sie mit Julia Kinder und wenn ja, wie viele?
Antwort: Nein, wir hatten keine.
Frage: Hatte sie überhaupt Kinder?

Antwort: Nein, sie hatte keine.
Frage: Haben Sie ein Kind adoptiert?
Antwort: Sie half mir, einen Jungen von mir aufzuziehen, Fremont Combing. Aber es war nicht ihr eigener Sohn, und sie hat ihn auch nicht adoptiert.
Frage: Dann hatte sie kein eigenes Kind, sondern half einfach, dieses Kind zu erziehen. War es so?
Antwort: Ja, so war es.
Frage: Wer waren die Eltern von Julia Rushes?
Antwort: Ich kenne ihren Vater nicht. Sie hat mir einmal den Namen ihrer Mutter genannt, aber ich habe ihn vergessen. Ich habe ihre Mutter getroffen, aber ihr Vater starb vor langer Zeit und ich habe ihn nie kennengelernt.
Frage: Lebt ihre Mutter noch oder ist sie verstorben?
Antwort: Sie starb 1876 und ihr Vater starb lange vorher.
Frage: Zu welchem Stamm gehörten die beiden?
Antwort: Sie waren Sioux.
Frage: Hatte Julia Rushes Brüder und Schwestern, und wenn ja, wie viele? Nennen Sie ihre Namen, das Alter und sagen erzählen sie uns, ob sie noch leben oder verstorben sind. Falls sie verstorben sind, geben Sie bitte das Sterbedatum und das Alter zum Zeitpunkt des Todes an.
Antwort: Ich habe von vier Schwestern und einem Bruder gehört. Der Bruder hieß Red Eagle. Er ist bereits verstorben. Er starb noch vor den Landzuteilungen und war etwa 50 bis 60 Jahre alt. Er starb auf der Rosebud Reservation. Comes Out At Night war der Name einer der Schwestern und sie starb nach Red Eagle als alte Frau auch auf Rosebud, aber noch vor Julia Rushes. Die zwei anderen Schwestern starben schon vor langer Zeit und ich kenne ihre Namen nicht. Sie starben schon lange bevor Julia Rushes erwachsen wurde. Ich weiß nicht, wie alt sie zum Zeitpunkt ihres Todes waren. Dann war da noch eine Zwillingsschwester von Julia Rushes. Ihr Name war Deer. Auch sie starb lange vor Julia, und sie war ungefähr 30 Jahre alt, als sie starb.
Frage: Also zum Zeitpunkt als Julia starb, waren ihre Eltern und ihre Geschwister bereits verstorben. Ist das richtig?
Antwort: Ja, das ist richtig.

Frage: Zu der Zeit, als Julia gestorben ist, behaupten Sie, ihr rechtmäßiger Ehemann gewesen zu sein?
Antwort: Ich weiß.
Frage: Wissen Sie mehr über die Familiengeschichte von Julia Rushes?
Antwort: Das ist alles, was ich über sie weiß.
Frage: Haben Sie Interesse an diesen Grundstücken?
Antwort: Ja, das habe ich.

A. Neither of them ever lived on their own land.

allotment and at the time they died?
A. No they did not.
Q. Was Red Leg ever married and if so how many times?
A. He had been married only one time.
Q. Who was her husband? A. Thomas Dreamt.
Q. Did you know K. ? A. I did.
Q. How and when was she married to him? A. Indian custom over 70 years ago.

Q. Did they have any children and if so, how many?
A. I know of four children.
Q. Name them, and give their ages and dates of deaths if any ages deaths
A. They are as fo lows:
(1) Leo Dunning, living, age about 6 9 years;

(4) Irene Cadue or Mrs. Jones Clown, living, age 52 years;
Those are all the ones I ever saw, but I have heard of one

Arrobile

P. B.

Q. How and when were Bear Pipe and [illegible] married? A. Indian custom long before allotments.
Q. Did they live together until he died? A. They did.
Q. Did they have any children and if so, how many?
A. I have heard of one child that died right after birth and that is all the child they ever had. It died before its father, so there is no one left of his family.

A. He was married one time to Margaret Wolf, still living.
Q. How and when were they married? A. Ceremony about 27 years ago.

Q. At the time of the hearing in the case of Peter Wolf and at this time how many of his family are living?
A. There is only the wife and one daughter living, and the daughter's name is Nellie Wolf, married to [illegible], and I hear that she has a child just lately, but they are all there is left of the family of Peter Wolf.
Q. Then at this time there are two children of Red Leg and the wife and one child of a son that died after his mother, is that correct?

p. 2.

They all live together as a but [illegible] did buy a coffin for Julia when she died that cost $150, so I heard and he helped to care for her along with the rest of them.
Q. Are his father and mother living? A. Yes.
Q. Then is that all the child she ever did anything for?
A. Yes.
Q. Did she adopt him by any court or ceremony? A. There were no
[illegible] then and they did not think of it at that time.
Q. Was that about all there was to this adoption? A. She helped to care for him and gave him horses and when he got married she gave him horses and did things like that for him.

Frage: Dann gibt es derzeitig zwei Kinder von Red Leg, der Ehefrau und das Kind eines Sohnes, der nach seiner Mutter starb. Ist das richtig?

übrig geblieben sind. Der Rest starb vor ihr und hinterließ keine Nachkommen.

Antwort: Nein.
Frage: War Julia Rushes jemals verheiratet und wenn ja, wie oft, mit wem, wie, und wann und wie wurde die Ehe beendet?

Seine Mutter lebt noch und er hat sich ein bisschen um sie gekümmert, als sie älter wurde. Aber sie haben alle zusammen gelebt und es ist schwer zu sagen, was jeder für den anderen getan hat. Sie leben jetzt alle zusammen, aber Fremont Combing kaufte einen Sarg für Julia, als sie starb, der $ 165 gekostet hatte. Ich hörte auch, dass er ihr half, und zusammen mit den anderen für sie sorgte.
Frage: Sind seine Eltern noch am Leben?
Antwort: Ja.
Frage: Ist er das einzige Kind, um das sie sich jemals gekümmert hat?
Antwort: Ja.
Frage: Hat sie ihn jemals gesetzlich vor einem Gericht oder in einer Zeremonie adoptiert?
Antwort: Es gab damals keine Gerichte, und sie hatten damals einfach nicht daran gedacht.

Frage: Ist das alles, was es zu dieser Art von Adoption zu sagen gibt?
Antwort: Sie sorgte für ihn und schenkte ihm Pferde, und als er heiratete, schenkte sie ihm auch Pferde. Das war es, was sie für ihn tat.

Wenn, dann müssen schon lange vor ihr gestorben sein, da ich in den 39 Jahren, die ich sie gekannt habe, nicht eine getroffen habe. Ich bin sicher, dass sie sind alle lange vor ihr gestorben sein müssen. Das ist alles, was ich über ihre Brüder und Schwestern weiß.
Frage: Sind Sie bereit, zu bezeugen, dass, als Julia Rushes vor etwas mehr als einem Jahr verstorben ist, keine noch lebenden Geschwister hinterließ?
Antwort: Ja, ich bin bereit, zu bezeugen, dass sie, zum Zeitpunkt ihres Todes, keinen noch lebenden Bruder oder Schwester mehr hatte. Sie sind lange vor ihr verstorben.
Frage: Haben Sie Interesse an diesen Grundstücken?
Antwort: Nein.

Erbschaftsdokumente für Peter Wolf (Makah)

Diese Zeugenaussagen wurden zwei Jahre nach der Ermordung von Peter Wolf abgegeben. Als Zeugen wurden seine Ehefrau Margaret, Moses Red Bird, der Sohn von Paul Red Bird und John Promise, der Pfarrer der Bear Creek Episkopal Mission in Bear Creek, South Dakota vorgeladen.
Margaret wurde noch einmal vorgeladen und nach einem eventuellen zweiten Wohnsitz von Peter Wolf befragt. Wolf verbrachte viel Zeit mit seinen Verwandten, und wir glauben, dass er versuchte herauszufinden, wer diese Verwandten waren.

Die Zeugenaussagen wurden der Lesbarkeit halber, noch einmal abgeschrieben, aber die Originaldokumente liegen vor. Sie schließen auch Zeugenaussagen ein, die Peter und Margarets Sohn, Joshua abgegeben haben.

JUL [illegible] 1937

The Honorable

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

Submitted herewith are all papers connected with the probate of the estate of Iron Cedar or Mrs. Julia Clown, Allottee #[illegible] of the Cheyenne River Sioux Indian Tribe in the State of South Dakota, who died on July 10, 1936, at the age of [illegible] years.

With the record is an instrument executed by the decedent on December 17, 1928, as and for her last will and testament. The testimony of the attesting witnesses shows the decedent to have been of sound and disposing mind and memory at the time of the making and execution of this instrument and not to have been actuated by fraud, duress, undue influence, or coercion. The instrument appears to have been properly executed and attested. It is, therefore, recommended that the aforesaid will receive Departmental approval.

The will makes only a specific devise of a quarter section of decedent's allotment to her son, Joseph or Peter Clown, and the residue of her estate has not been disposed of. It appears, therefore, that a finding of heirship covering said residue, is required. The testimony shows that the decedent left as heirs, her husband, Amos Clown, entitled to 7/21 of her estate; the following children: Joseph or Peter Clown, son; Lillie or Mrs. James Makes Trouble, daughter; James Clown, son; Louise or Mrs. Henry Red Bear, daughter and Edward and Raymond Alex Clown, sons; each entitled to 2/21 of her estate and Ethel (Ethel Louise) Butcher and Mabel (Angeline Mabel) Butcher, granddaughters, who represent their mother, Nellie or Nellie or Mrs. Sam Butcher, daughter of decedent who died on November 11, 1930; each entitled to 1/21 of decedent's estate.

The N½ of the SE¼ and Lots 3 and 4, containing 157.34 acres, was used by decedent as a home and her widower still resides there; hence, this tract descends subject to the homestead rights of Amos Clown until the same is otherwise disposed of according to law.

All of the other facts pertinent to the disposition of decedent's estate are set forth in the accompanying Summary of Report on Heirs of the Examiner of Inheritance and the same have been verified in this Office.

Respectfully,

(Signed) A. B. [illegible]

Acting Commissioner.

[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]

Decedant died Sept. 5, 1908, prior to the first will law.

No will in legal form. Two separate, alleged wills are made a part of the record. While I am satisfied that John Makes it Long did take some kind of a statement from Touch the Cloud, from an examination of the witnesses, their manner in testifying, and the alleged wills, that these were made under duress and are of no legal effect. I recommend that they be disapproved.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION: There is much testimony pro and con relative to the legitimacy of Rosie Touch the Cloud's child which was born subsequent to the death of Touch the Cloud. The testimony goes both ways. Clay Ben In the Hole and White Yearling asserted that Rosie Touch the Cloud had been haled before the Indian Court on charges of immorality. I made a search, however of the Indian Court records and found no entry of that character. I find that there is no preponderance of testimony showing that this child was illegitimate and it must, therefore, be deemed legitimate. The legitimacy of the child, in any event is immaterial, for it died under age (shortly after birth) and consequently could not have been married or left issue and its interest thereupon descended to Touch the Cloud's other children.

CONFLICT between the official record and the testimony. [illegible]

The records are silent upon the facts covered under "Additional Information," and otherwise there is no conflict.

I [illegible] that I have made a careful investigation as to the relatives of the decedent [illegible] begun Aug. 15, 1914 and concluded Oct 22, 1914 substantiated by official records and by the testimony taken at a hearing [illegible], 191 , under the provisions of the act of June 25, 1910 (36 Stat., 855), and that it appears that at time of the hearing the heirs of the decedent,

Touch the Cloud, and the [illegible] of the estate are as follows:

[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
Rosie Touch The Cloud or HolyWoman	wife	See page 1	3/9
Jane Charging First	son and brother of subsequently deceased son.		2/9
Warrior or Mrs. Hatchet Looks Around	daughter and sister of subsequently deceased son.		2/9
Chief Woman or Mrs. Frances In the Hole (Adult)	do		2/9

This estate descends subject to the homestead rights of the widow. I have requested the farmer in charge of the Cherry Creek District to submit an appraisal and as soon as same is received shall forward it for inclusion in this record.

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF:

EDNA TRAVERSIE-FRAZIER-SWIFT HORSE, Cheyenne River Sioux Allottee No. 3606, ORDER APPROVING WILL AND DECREE OF DISTRIBUTION.

This case coming on to be heard before the Examiner of Inheritance, Office of the Solicitor, Bismarck, North Dakota, and upon submission of the evidence the following facts and conclusions of law are presented:

Notices of the hearing on this estate were duly served upon the known heirs, devisees, and other interested persons by mailing a copy of the notice to them at their last known addresses, and by posting the notices at five public places on the Cheyenne River Reservation twenty days in advance of the date of the hearing.

A hearing was duly held at Eagree, South Dakota, on October 24, 1957, for the purpose of ascertaining the heirs at law of the decedent, and the facts and circumstances surrounding the execution of an instrument in writing, dated August 1, 1955, purporting to be her last will and testament.

The evidence adduced at the hearing discloses that the decedent died on January 31, 1957, at the age of 84 years, a resident of the State of South Dakota, leaving surviving her the following heirs at law, determined in accordance with the laws of the State of South Dakota (Subsec. 1, Sec. 56.0104, S. Dak. Rev. Code, 1939), whose respective shares in the estate, had she died intestate, would be:

Leonard (Sam) Frazier, C.R. al. 1979,	son,	1/4
Marie Frazier Lamb, C.R. al. 1978,	dau.,	1/4
Leona Swift Horse Cadotte, C.R. al. 2079,	dau.,	1/4
Clara Marie Frazier, C.R. al. 5105,	gr-dau.,	1/4

By the terms of the decedent's purported last will and testament, she makes a specific devise to her grandson, Ernest Lamb, and leaves the residue of her estate to her children, Marie Frazier Lamb, Leonard (Sam) Frazier, and Leona Swift Cadotte, share and share alike. She also bequeaths the sum of $1.00 to her granddaughter, Marie Clara Frazier, and the sum of $1.00 to Verna C. Horse.

The trust lands of the decedent are situated on the Cheyenne River and Standing Rock Reservations. The Indians of these reservations have voted to accept the provisions of the Act of June 18, 1934 (48 Stat. 984; 25 U.S.C. sec. 464), which act provides that no devise to a person who is not an heir at law of the testator, or a member of the tribe having jurisdiction over the land devised, may be approved.

Order Approving Will in the Estate of
Edna Traversie- Frazier-Swift Horse, C.R. al. [illegible]
Page 2.

The records disclose that the beneficiaries named in the will are either heirs at law of the decedent or members of the tribe having jurisdiction over the land devised and, therefore, are eligible to take the land devised to them.

The will is not contested and is shown by the accompanying affidavits of the attesting witnesses thereto to have been properly made and executed by the decedent when she was of sound and disposing mind and memory and not actuated thereto by fraud, undue influence, coercion or duress.

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the power and authority vested in the Secretary of the Interior by the Act of June 25, 1910 (36 Stat. 855; 25 U.S.C. sec. 372), as amended by the Act of February 14, 1913 (37 Stat. 678; 25 U.S.C. sec. 373), and the Act of June 18, 1934 (48 Stat. 984; 25 U.S.C. sec. 464), and pursuant to Departmental Regulations of May 29, 1947 (25 CFR 15), delegating probate authority to the Examiners of Inheritance, the within-described written instrument, dated August 1, 1955, is hereby approved as the decedent's last will and testament.

IT IS ORDERED, that the Superintendent will cause to be made a distribution of the trust estate of the decedent in accordance with her last will and testament, subject to the payment of the probate fee and allowed claims, as follows:

The Cheyenne River Sioux Tribe filed a claim against this estate for decedent's funeral expenses in the amount of $578.29; and the Bennett Clarkson Memorial Hospital of Rapid City, South Dakota, filed a claim for expenses of decedent's last illness in the amount of $1137.50. These indebtednesses were incurred, and claims filed therefore, and claims were considered prior to the amendment of the probate regulations which impose limitations on the amounts for funeral and last illness expenses which can be allowed as preferred claims. (25 CFR 15.25 a, 2 & 6). For this reason, both claims will be allowed in full amounts, as filed, as preferred claims.

The following claims are hereby allowed and are to be paid from funds now held or hereafter accruing to the credit of the estate (unless otherwise prohibited by law), in the numerical order listed below, with no preference as to payment of the claims in the same numbered category, and subject to the payment of the probate fee:

1. $ 578.29 – Cheyenne River Sioux Tribe, Eagle Butte, S. Dak., covering decedent's funeral expenses.

   $1137.50 – Bennett Clarkson Memorial Hospital, Rapid City, S. Dak., covering expenses of decedent's last illness.

2. $1312.00 – Department of Public Welfare of South Dakota, Pierre, S. Dak., covering old age assistance grants made to decedent.

The trust estate of the decedent having been appraised at $4,001.08, a probate fee of $50.00, will be collected by the Superintendent or other officer in charge in accordance with authority found in the Act of January 27, 1933 (47 Stat. 1185; 25 U.S.C. sec. 377).

DECEASED CHEYENNE RIVER SIOUX INDIAN	)	DISTRIBUTION

This is a proceeding to determine the heirs and to settle the estate of Blaine Edward Clown. It is conducted pursuant to the power and authority vested in the Secretary of the Interior as delegated to the undersigned (43 C.F.R. §4.1).

Upon receipt of the notice of death, a hearing was duly noticed and held at Eagle Butte, South Dakota, on 04/14/2000, and the record thereafter closed.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW, based upon the evidence, are as follows:

1. Vital Statistics. The decedent was born 07/15/1934 and died of natural causes at Rapid City, South Dakota, on 04/04/1999, a domiciliary of the State of South Dakota.

2. Family History. The decedent's only marriage was to Beverly M. In The Woods Clown, which ended by the decedent's death. The decedent and Beverly had six children, namely, Blaine, Douglas, Mary Ellen, Donald, Doreen and Sheila. Mary Ellen and Doreen died as infants prior to the decedent's death, and the other four children survive the decedent. The decedent was also the father of one other child, namely, Floyd, and he survives the decedent. The decedent acknowledged Floyd as his own by signing a Paternity Affidavit on 05/20/1956. The decedent did not adopt any children and none of his children were adopted by other parents.

In finding Floyd Gene Clown to be an heir of the decedent, the provisions of Section 5 of the Act of February 28, 1891, are applicable. That Act provides that for the purpose of determining the descent of land to the heirs of any deceased Indian, every Indian child, shall for such purpose be deemed the legitimate issue of his or her father. Estate of Francis Sears, IA-1397 (May 27, 1988).

3. Restricted or Trust Assets. At the date of death, the decedent was the owner of trust or restricted property, real and/or personal, located on the Cheyenne River and Standing Rock Reservations listed on the inventories attached, and other reporting documents. There is a cash balance, plus accruing interest, in the decedent's Individual Indian Money Account.

4. Claims. A claim was filed against the decedent's estate by the 1st Financial Bank USA, P.O. Box 98, Dupree, South Dakota 57623, on 05/11/1999, in the amount of $5,596.52, for a loan made to the decedent on 10/11/1995. Pursuant to S.D. Codified Laws Ann. § 15-2-8, the six-year statute of limitations has expired. Therefore, this claim is disallowed.

A claim was filed against the decedent's estate by the Cheyenne River Sioux Tribe located in Eagle Butte, South Dakota 57625, on 05/11/1999, in the amount of $21,790.48, for a loan made to the decedent on 03/25/1977. Because this claim was subsequently cancelled by the Cheyenne River Tribal Resolution and written-off by the Council, this claim is disallowed.

5. Will. No Last Will and Testament was submitted for probate in this estate, and there is no substantial evidence to conclude that the decedent executed a Will.

6. Heirs. At death, the decedent was survived by heirs at law whose respective names, enrollment numbers, birth dates, relationships, and interests in the estate under the statutes of descent of the State of South Dakota [S.D. Codified Laws Ann. § 29A-2-102(2) (1995)] and The Standing Rock Act of June 17, 1980, Pub. L. No. 96-274, Sec. 3(a)(1), 94 Stat. 537 (1980) are as stated in paragraph A below.
